

OUTLINE PEER WORKSHOP

Your Name:

Peer Reviewer's Name:

FOR YOU TO ANSWER:

What are your biggest concerns? What questions do you have for your peer?

FOR THE PEER REVIEWER TO ANSWER:

Did the writer include a project statement at the top? Is it informative? Suggest ways to strengthen it. If it is strong, describe the points that, in your opinion, make it strong.

Does the outline address all the prompt's requirements? If not, which elements are missing, and which area of the outline do you think they could be placed?

Is the outline elaborated to sufficient depth? Point out places where more detail would be useful.

Do the ideas in the outline flow together to make a unifiable whole? Read just the roman numeral bullets. Do they provide a complete analysis? If not, point out why. Do they leave unanswered questions in your mind? If they do, write the questions down.

In your opinion, what are the outline's strengths? Explain why they are strengths.

In your opinion, what are the outline's weaknesses? Suggest two ways the writer could strengthen these items.
