

PEER REVIEW WORKSHOP

Your Name:

Peer Reviewer's Name:

FOR YOU TO ANSWER:

What are your biggest concerns? What questions do you have for your peer?

FOR THE PEER REVIEWER TO ANSWER:

1. Is the purpose of this essay clear? Write down the sentence(s) you believe to be the writer's project/thesis.
2. Identify what you believe to be one strength and one weakness of the introductory paragraph.

3. Are the body paragraphs elaborated to sufficient depth? Point out places where more detail would be useful.

4. Identify the writer's organizational strategy. Are the body paragraphs structured in a clear manner? Suggest ways in which the writer may improve this organization.

5. Pinpoint what you believe to be one major strength and one major weakness of the body paragraphs.

6. Does the writer conclude his/her analysis by explaining the importance of conducting a rhetorical analysis of Hari's article? Write down the sentence(s) you believe provide this significance.

7. Identify what you believe to be one strength and one weakness of the concluding paragraph.

8. Does the writer touch on all the prompt's requirements? If not, which requirements are missing and how may they be incorporated?

9. If not previously addressed, take a moment to answer any concerns and questions the writer shared in the beginning.